

RECRUITING TOWN PLANNER

Posted on December 13, 2016

We are ending 2016 on a high and having secured a large number of new projects, both in London and beyond we are looking to grow our team again in 2017. We are looking for an experienced Planner who either has or is close to submitting their APC for Chartered Town Planning Membership. Your experience could be in local government or at another consultancy and ideally you will have experience of planning appeals.

We are a small and friendly but ambitious Town Planning Consultancy based in the thriving area of Aldgate in East London. Our project work is broad, comprising of major infrastructure projects, medium scale mixed use schemes and larger scale residential projects across the UK. We also deliver smaller projects for private clients and architects in the London area.

For details of some of our projects please see our projects page and details of the types of services we offer can be found here.

Critically, we are looking for people that want to work for a small consultancy business. We offer a competitive salary and flexible working arrangements for those people that have a high work ethic and an enthusiasm to get involved with all aspects of the business.

If you are interested in an informal and confidential conversation about the role then please contact Director Peter Higginbottom on 020 7993 4539 or 07841 648090.

To apply directly then please send your CV and a Cover Letter to info@planninginsight.co.uk
