

SOUTHALL COURT GRANTED

Posted on April 10, 2019

We have today received planning permission from the London Borough of Ealing for the application at Southall Court. The development comprises of the erection of an additional storey and the creation of nine flats, a site office and extension to one flat.

We are delighted with the outcome and wish our clients well in implementing the permission.

Please click the image below for further details of this project:

